Community Spotlights

On October 22, Jane welcomed Girl Scouts from Troop 2682 in Shoreham-Wading River to Town Hall. The group met in the Town Council conference room where Councilmember Bonner joined in a lively discussion about Town government and her role on the Town Council. By participating, the Girl Scouts earned their Inside Government junior badge.

On October 31, Jane was on-hand on a rainy day when the Town demolished a vacant and abandoned “zombie house” at 149 King Road in Rocky Point. The long-abandoned house was the source of resident complaints leading to numerous Town of Brookhaven housing code violations. It was demolished in accordance with Chapter 73 of the Town Code which provides a “fast track” to rid neighborhoods of unsafe structures.

On October 31, Jane presented more than 50 cell phones to the Town’s Veterans Services Officer Hillary DiPasquale as part of the “Cell Phones for Soldiers” program. This national non-profit organization provides cost-free communication services and emergency funding to active-duty military members and veterans. Residents donated their cell phones at four Brookhaven Town drop-off locations from September 15 through October 15.:

HOW TO START AND GROW AN ONLINE BUSINESS

On Tuesday, November 12, the Town of Brookhaven's Division of Women's Services will host "How to Start and Grow an Online Business" seminar at Town Hall from 6:30 pm and 8:30 pm. The event is co-sponsored by Stony Brook University, America's SBDC New York and Capital One Bank. Brookhaven Town Hall is located at One Independence Hill in Farmingville. SBDC Business Advisor, Brenda Zhang will moderate the event which will help potential entrepreneurs to gain an understanding of the online retail market and how to step in for the benefit of your business. The program is free, but registration is required on our registration Web page.

For more information, call the Small Business Development Center at Stony Brook University at 631-632-9837 or the Town of Brookhaven Division of Women's Services at 631-451-6146.
